

And Let Us Not Be Weary in Well-Doing Thoughts on Parashat Chukat

⁹And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. (Gal 6:9, KJV)

So let us not grow weary of doing what is good; for if we don't give up, we will in due time reap the harvest (Gal 6:9, CJB)

¹³But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing. (2 Th 3:13, KJV)

¹³But as for you, brethren, do not grow weary of doing good. (NASB)

¹³And you brothers who are doing what is good, don't slack off! (CJB)

The people of Isra'el, the whole community, entered the Tzin Desert in the first month, and they stayed in Kadesh. There Miryam died, and there she was buried. Because the community had no water, they assembled themselves against Moshe and Aharon. The people quarreled with Moshe and said, "We wish we had died when our brothers died before ה'י. Why did you bring ה'י's community into this desert? To die there, we and our livestock? Why did you make us leave Egypt? To bring us to this terrible place without seed, figs, grapevines, pomegranates or even water to drink?" Moshe and Aharon left the assembly, went to the entrance of the tent of meeting and fell on their faces; and the glory of ה'י appeared to them. ה'י said to Moshe, "Take the staff, assemble the community, you and Aharon your brother; and before their eyes, tell the rock to produce its water. You will bring them water out of the rock and thus enable the community and their livestock to drink." Moshe took the staff from the presence of ה'י, as he had ordered him. But after Moshe and Aharon had assembled the community in front of the rock, he said to them, "Listen here, you rebels! Are we supposed to bring you water from this rock?" Then Moshe raised his hand and hit the rock twice with his staff. Water flowed out in abundance, and the community and their livestock drank. But ה'י said to Moshe and Aharon, "Because you did not trust in me, so as to cause me to be regarded as holy by the people of Isra'el, you will not bring this community into the land I have given them." (Nu 20:1-12)

As I look at these verses I might find several different reasons for us to be saddened. First we find that the entire community gathered together and instead of being thankful for what ה'י had already done for them by bringing them out of the land of Mitzraim (Egypt) they chose to be carnal and complain again.

A second reason for sadness is that when they did realize that they had a need, in this case water, instead of turning to ה'י for provision they look back at Egypt through perverted vision and instead of seeing slavery they saw a place where their physical needs were met.

A third reason we could be saddened is that they failed to see that where they were was a blessing! ה'י had delivered them, and brought them out and yet, instead of seeing their blessing they saw ה'י deliverance as a curse, no figs, grapes pomegranates or water.

A fourth reason for our saddening when reading these verses could be that instead of looking to ה'י for provision they complained against the men whom ה'י had placed over them.

The more we look at these verses the more opportunities we can find to be saddened by the reactions and responses of the Children of Israel as they arrived at Kadesh. As I read through these verses, each of these reasons became very real to me as I looked through my life and saw how I have reacted and responded to life's uncertainties and challenges—in very similar ways. Scripture shows me how much of a complainer I can be!

However the part of these events that cause me the greatest sadness of heart is not what the people said, nor what Moshe said, but instead I focused on what ה'י said to Moshe. ה'י spoke these words:

“Because you did not trust in me, so as to cause me to be regarded as holy by the people of Isra'el...”

“Because ye believed not in Me, to sanctify Me in the eyes of the children of Israel...” (JPS)

These words put into light a truth so many of us overlook. This truth is, that when we fail to demonstrate faith in יהוה it does not effect only ourselves, it also effects those around us. This is because our actions diminish other people's understanding of whom יהוה is. We make יהוה seem weak and ineffective. We don't make יהוה appear Holy and Sanctified to those around us. We start treating Him like one of us. How unfortunate! Our sins, when we miss the mark in our walk as believers, does precisely what Moshe & Aharon did. Then you can almost hear יהוה speaking to our hearts and saying: “Because you didn't believe in Me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the people.”

It is hard for me to imagine any sadder statement that could be spoken to us.

¹⁵*For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: (1 Pet 2:15, KJV)*

¹⁵*For such is the will of God that by doing right you may silence the ignorance of foolish men. (NASB)*

¹⁷*For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. (1 Pet 3:17, KJV)*

¹⁷*For if God has in fact willed that you should suffer, it is better that you suffer for doing what is good than for doing what is evil. (CJB)*
