

Approaching Restitution

“Therefore repent and return, so that your sins may be wiped away, in order that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord; and that He may send Yeshua, the Messiah appointed for you, whom heaven must receive until the period of restoration of all things (restitution of all things, KJV) about which God spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets from ancient time.” (Acts 3:19-21)

“Then Y’hudah approached (vayigash) Yosef and said, ‘Please, my lord! Let your servant say something to you privately; and don’t be angry with your servant, for you are like Pharaoh himself.’” (Gen. 44:18)

Introduction

One of the most commonly translated words for repentance in the Torah is t’shuvah. However, the Hebrew word t’shuvah can more accurately be translated as ‘turn around and return.’ In Modern Hebrew, the word means to give an answer. Thus, from a Torah perspective repentance is to turn around and return and give an answer to Adonai. This concept was clearly understood by Yeshua’s disciples: “Therefore, repent, and turn to God, so that your sins may be erased” (Acts 3:19, CJB). Parashat Vayigash vividly illustrates this type of repentance when Yosef’s brothers return to him. To truly experience repentance, we must first realize that repentance is a journey, and not a single event. The journey of repentance leads us to salvation (it leads us to Y’shua). Vayigash demonstrates how in the process of returning to and answering Adonai, we are required to sacrifice and forgive in order to experience renewal. Scripture states clearly in Romans 12:1-2: “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed (metamorphosis) by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.” Metamorphosis requires time!

It Requires Sacrifice

The connection between repentance and sacrifice can be seen in Gen. 44:32-34: “For your servant himself guaranteed his safety; I said, ‘If I fail to bring him to you, then I will bear the blame before my father forever.’ Therefore, I beg you, let your servant stay as a slave to my lord instead of the boy, and let the boy go up with his brothers. For how can I go up to my father if the boy isn’t with me? I couldn’t bear to see my father so overwhelmed by anguish.” Yehudah is willing to take Binyamin’s place as Yosef’s prisoner. Clearly this is an act of repentance for him. Recall, Yehudah was the brother who came up with the idea to sell Yosef to the Ishmaelites. But now his heart has returned to the will of Adonai and as a result, he now places the needs of other individuals above his own. Because he wants to substitute himself for Binyamin, he is foreshadowing his descendant, Messiah Y’shua who substituted His life for our ours! Yehudah is concerned about the ill effects that leaving Binyamin in Egypt would have on his father. He is demonstrating his repentance through his works by protecting his father from the grief of losing Binyamin. His desire to sacrifice his own needs shows how strong his love has grown. John 15:13 states “No one has greater love than a person who lays down his life for his friends.” Thus, as a result of Yehudah’s act of love, Yosef was able to reveal himself to his brothers. Are you willing to sacrifice so that your family can be restored?

It Continues with Forgiveness

Repentance also requires forgiveness. Gen. 45:1-5 states, “At last Yosef could no longer control his feelings in front of his attendants and cried, ‘Get everybody away from me!’ So no one else was with him when Yosef revealed to his brothers who he was. He wept aloud, and the Egyptians heard, and Pharaoh’s household heard. Yosef said to his brothers, ‘I am Yosef! Is it true that my father is still alive?’ His brothers couldn’t answer him; they were so dumbfounded at seeing him. Yosef said to his brothers, ‘Please! Come closer.’ And they came closer. He said, ‘I am Yosef, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. But don’t be sad that you sold me into slavery here or angry at yourselves, because it was God who sent me ahead of you to preserve life.’” Yosef was willing to forgive his brothers for all the hardship they had caused him for all those years. Yosef’s forgiveness of his brothers made it possible to heal the division and the crack, and open the avenue that reunites his family. Healing the rift made it possible for Adonai to return Yosef

to his father. As a result, all his family was able to escape the famine by living in Egypt. Yosef's act of forgiveness was an essential part of Adonai's plan to save the life of not only Yosef but also his brothers and ultimately his entire family. Yosef's forgiveness healed the wounds (notice that Yosef is willing to pay the emotional costs of the harm done to him) and allows Adonai's blessings to flow to his brothers and his father.

It Ends in Restitution, Renewal, and Restoration

Repentance causes us to become renewed – to become new creations. Gen. 45:9-11 states: “Hurry, go up to my father, and tell him, ‘Here is what your son Yosef says: God has made me lord of all Egypt! Come down to me, don't delay! You will live in the land of Goshen and be near me - you, your children, your grandchildren, flocks, herds, everything you own. I will provide for you there, so that you won't become poverty-stricken, you, your household and all that you have; because five years of famine are yet to come.’” Because Yosef's brothers repented and returned to Yosef, they are able to experience renewal. As renewed individuals the brothers were given a fresh start, and they were given new farms and lodgings in the land of Goshen – the very best farmland in Egypt. Yosef also guaranteed that as renewed individuals under his protection, his family would never experience poverty.

This is the month of family relationships in our country. Even if we wanted to, we cannot often avoid family gatherings and visits. Is it possible that we can also experience the healing of family like Yosef did? Yes and a thousand times yes. And it will cost you, but it is worth every penny. Repentance is an enduring process that takes our time and energy to complete. This is because heartfelt repentance requires, sacrifice, forgiveness, and renewal. Sacrifice is required to show the world we are willing to lay our lives down for others. Forgiveness is required so that we do not hold grudges against individuals who have wronged us. Forgiveness is also required in order that our own debts are forgiven: “For if you forgive others their offenses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you” (Matthew 6:14).

Restitution, Restoration and Renewal are also required so that we become the new creation we are intended to be: “Therefore, if anyone is united with the Messiah, he is a new creation - the old has passed; look, what has come is fresh and new!” (2 Corinthians 5:17) When repentance is built on the process of sacrifice, forgiveness, and renewal, it is an enduring witness of the salvation that is freely given by Adonai through Y'shua to the world. It cost Messiah Yeshua everything (His life) to give it to us freely. How little in comparison is our cost compared to His eternal sacrifice?

Leave here today with a made up mind to help restore your family by forgiving those who have hurt you, by sacrificing yourself as a living sacrifice, which is after all, your reasonable service, and by allowing grace (which is the desire and the power) that Yeshua gives us all to do His will and obey Him in everything. If you do, this will be the best holiday season ever. I pray it will be so. Amen!
